Editorial

Babylon is Burning (Again)

The riots in London and other British cities in August 2011 were not a re-run of the riots of the early 1980's, they were another step towards the nightmare future for Britain predicted by the late Enoch Powell MP.

Although Powell was no National Socialist, he saw what a multi-racial future would bring to Britain in the long term. Contrary to what many liberal and left-wing writers and academics might say, Powell was looking many years ahead.

I was recently reminded by a speaker at a pan-Nationalist meeting that when the rash of racially motivated riots broke out in the 1980's, Powell's only comment was to the effect that,
"You have seen nothing yet!"

He was of course looking decades ahead, but the Establishment politicians and the media failed to understand that vision. Again when riots ripped through Oldham, Burnley and Bradford in 2001, the system trotted out the same tired excuses and pledges that 'lessons will be learned', but they learn nothing and pump extra millions of tax-payers money into propping up their failed multi-racial experiment.

Multi-culturalism too failed, quite spectacularly when the homegrown Islamic terrorists detonated their bombs in London in the summer of 2005.

Now it is inner city riots again, once again the worst of it is felt in Britain's most multi-racial, multi-cultural city, London. Copy cat riots in other multi-racial towns and cities comes as no surprise. So what of the future?

As Powell so accurately predicted -
'You ain't seen nothing yet!'

Meanwhile the economy of the European Union totters from one crisis to another, The economy of the USA and unfortunately Britain shakes and rattles, is this the beginning of the end for monopoly capitalism and international finance ?

Or is this all part and parcel of some planned long term strategy intended to dismantle the prime economies of the Western world before rebuilding them according to some grand International or World Bank model.

Did somebody mention the Protocols?

National Socialism is the only solution.

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK !

The Norwegian Massacre - The Riots in England More Excuses for the State to Act Against Racial Nationalists

Although the riots in England in August 2011 have dominated the media headlines and police resources, there has been a slow and non-so subtle increase in State activity against and surveillance of those the State regards as 'White racists'.

The police and Security services are being spoon-fed a diet of half-informed, hostile opinion by certain professional anti-fascist organisations; - see page 13 of this issue of Broadsword. This deliberate campaign to instill an automatic negative response to all aspects of racial Nationalism amongst British law-enforcement personnel has been gradually built up over the past decade.

One anti-racist organisation in particular has managed to install its political outlook into the Home Office and Ministry of Justice, supplying the formal police and prison service training courses, including compulsory police training material at the Metropolitan Police training centre at Hendon.

This ensures that all new personnel are programmed to regard any kind of anti-immigration or racially aware activity with both suspicion and rejection. These officers are now conditioned to put the defence of multi-culturalism and so-called 'community cohesion' first.

The main stay of this propaganda was previously launched in the USA by the ADL, (Anti-Defamation League) which prepared and published the training manuals on which the British police and prison services now build their anti-racist training.

The British based anti-racists merely re-published the ADL material with new logos and a few extra pages focussing on the situation and organisations in the UK. Easy money.

The bombing in Oslo in summer 2011 and the gun massacre that followed has played straight into the hands of the anti-racists working for the State. The media whipped up the gullible ill-informed public into believing that there was an immediate threat of a similar act in the UK and Prime Minister David Cameron easily lapsed into stating that the Security services and the police would now commit greater resources into 'monitoring' (for that read harrassing) the so-called 'Far-Right' in Britain.

The 'Werwolf Column' has warned its readers many times in the past about the increasing surveillance and hostility of the State towards NS and racial nationalism in Britain. It is no co-incidence that behind the scenes our racial and political enemies are hard at work pushing the mainstream political agenda into doing their dirty work for them. Never forget that in the 1960's it was pressure from the political Left and the organised 'ethnic minority' groups hand in hand with the Board of Deputies of British Jews that achieved their first objective of the passing of the Race Relations Act. That was the foundation for all subsequent anti-racist legislation, and it is fair to say that there will be even more such repressive legislation in the future.

We can no longer ignore the threat from extreme Right-wing groups

ANDERS BREIVIK may have acted alone, but many within the far-right, including here in Britain, share his ideas about the need to take radical action against the "threat" of Islam.

Make no mistake, Breivik has already become a heroic figure for sections of the ultra far-right, much in the same way Timothy McVeigh, the Oklahoma City bomber, became a hero for sections of the militia movement in the United States.

In Britain, Breivik's anti-Muslim, anti-immigrant and anti-establishment ideas are easily found in a far-right scene that has become fragmented and chaotic.

With the British National Party in decline and its huddled box strategy dead, there is a clear risk that some activists may conclude that the only means of effecting change is through violence.

This was underscored by more than a dozen cases in recent years of activists being arrested for preparing violent or terrorist actions.

The point should also be made

COMMENTARY
Dr Matthew Goodwin

that not having BNP councillors or a successful far-right party are poor indicators of the potential for violence.

Most so-called "lone wolves" operate beyond the borders of conventional party politics.

Breivik was anything but an irrational far-right loner. He travelled through the political mainstream and appeared well connected to far-right circles.

His manifesto suggests that some of his ideas were influenced by groups in Britain, namely the English Defence League.

David Cameron has stressed the need for Britain to learn lessons from the tragedy.

The attacks in Norway have clear policy implications. For too long, our efforts to prevent violent extremism and counter-radicalisation have focused almost exclusively on Muslim communities.

While al-Qaeda inspired terrorism remains the dominant threat, the potential for violence within far-right groups has been glossed over.

We know much about why some Britons have turned to the far-right of elections, but little about what trips others into open violence.

Some will argue that diverting more resources to a historically weak movement is unnecessary; that an attack by one lone wolf in Norway does not call for a complete overhaul in our current approach.

But this view ignores the changing nature of far-right politics in Europe.

Our task is to understand and deliver a more effective response to the new reality.

Dr Matthew Goodwin, of Nottingham University, is expert in extremism and the author of New British Fascism.

bold Western governments to suppress and discussed the merits of using biological and chemical weapons to kill up to two million people.

But it is his detailed descriptions of meetings with British neo-fascists that has led to fears he may be part of a network of right-wing extremists on mass murder.

Scotland Yard's domestic extremism unit is trying to identify the seven other people who attended the inaugural meeting of the "European Military Order and Criminal Tribunal" of the "Knights Templar" in London.

The order is to serve as an armed Indigenous Rights Organisation and as a "Caucasian Movement" and said the session was hosted by an English, Protestant, Another English extremist was also present as well as French, German, Greek, Dutch and Russian delegates.

He added that most of those at the meeting were successful entrepreneurs, business or political leaders worse with families.

"I had or have a relatively close relationship with... an Englishman who became my mentor," Breivik added. "He was the one who I described the 'perfect knight'."

A Scotland Yard source said Breivik was not thought to have visited Britain this year, but police are "checking" supplies into any possible links to British extremists and in touch with the Norwegian authorities.

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

Broadsword looks at the stories and incidents drawn from across the media in Britain that best illustrate the depths into which our country has sunk as the Government, the media, the police and the Race Relations industry conspire against the indigenous British people to impose a multi-cultural society on Britain. How British culture, values and traditions are undermined by political correctness, minority interests and racial equality. Stories which reveal the harsh reality of life in a multi-cultural Britain and the betrayal of the White British majority population.

FAKE ASYLUM- SEEKER GOT FREE MEDICAL TREATMENT ON THE NHS

The lengths that some illegal immigrants will go to in order to get their hands on free services and benefits never fails to surprise us here at the Broadsword.

From Northern Ireland comes this story of fakery and fraud resulting in a jail sentence for an illegal immigrant.

Abdullah Mohamed Mohamud had originally fled the civil war in Somalia in the 1990's and was granted asylum in the USA. There he became an American citizen as did his wife and subsequent five children.

Unfortunately his wife became ill after suffering a stroke and the family could not afford their American medical bills.

So the family assumed false Somalian identities, flew from the USA to Dublin and crossed into Northern Ireland where, in January 2011 Abdullah Mohamud asked for asylum, claiming that he and his family had just fled from Somalia.

The Mohamud family settled in West Belfast and made use of all the usual free services, interpreters, refugee support services, and especially free NHS medical care for Mrs Mohamud.

It did not take long for the family to run up a bill of more than £20,000 of social service, housing and welfare benefits, plus thousands of pounds worth of NHS treatment.

In May 2011 the UK Border Agency finally discovered evidence that the family were actually US citizens, that the Somali identities were fakes and that Mrs Mohamud had previously been refused entry into the United Kingdom back in January 2010 when she landed on a flight from the USA at Liverpool airport, claiming to be coming to the UK on holiday.

Abdullah Mohamud was found guilty at Bangor Magistrates Court on seven counts of fraud and of obtaining leave to remain in the UK by deception for himself, his wife and five children.

It also transpired that Abdullah Mohamud could also speak English - in all his earlier dealings with the authorities he had 'needed' an interpreter.

He was sentenced to three months in prison.

CIVIC CENTRE STAFF TOLD YOUNG MOTHER
"DON'T BREASTFEED YOUR CHILD HERE
IT IS A MULTI-CULTURAL BUILDING YOU WILL OFFEND MUSLIM VISITORS"

Oldham Civic Centre, July 2011

Emma Mitchell was ordered by civic centre staff to leave the public building because she was breastfeeding her 19 week old baby. The Manager of the Oldham Civic Centre told Mrs Mitchell that it was a multi-cultural building and that the sight of her breast-feeding the baby would "cause an uproar" among Muslim visitors to the building.

Mrs Mitchell had gone to the Civic Centre to access the Citizens Advice Bureau, when she was confronted she asked staff if she could sit in a quiet corner of the room facing the wall, to feed the baby.

Oldham Civic Centre staff refused, the centre manager told her " You absolutely can't do that here"

A member of the complaints department staff told her that, "You've caused an uproar in there."

Once again a one-sided local authority approach.
So much for tolerance and community understanding in civic minded Oldham.

'He is too old to be learning English'

Refusing Him Permission to Live in Britain is a Breach of His Human Rights
Leicester - July 2011

This story really hit the UK media headlines in July, but seems to have faded away.

Rashida Chapti, an Indian born 'British citizen' 54 year old resident of Leicester wants her 57 year old husband Vali (an Indian national) to be allowed to join her in the UK as a permanent resident. According to media reports the couple have been married for 37 years, have six children and for the last 15 years Mrs Chapti has travelled backwards and forwards from India to the UK but now wants her husband to settle in the UK. But the new immigration rules stipulate that Mr Chapti must speak English.

(He does not speak English).

Unbelievably Mrs Chapti told the British media, " He is too old to be learning English. He has a job ready for him here with me as a machinist. He will be a valued member of society."

So he wants to live in Leicester, has a job to come to, will be a valued member of society in Leicester - but will NOT need to speak English.

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

More Multi-racial Madness Stories Taken From Both the Local and National Press Which Betray the Level of Insanity Behind the Pursuit of Political Correctness and the Failed Concepts of Multi-Culturalism, Racial Integration and a Multi-Racial Society

ANY LIE WILL DO

All across the Third World, Africa, asia, the Far East, the Middle East, South America, the Caribbean, the Balkans, there are people who see Britain as the land of golden opportunities, the land of free living; state hand-outs, free housing, free education and health care.

All you have to do is get there, claim asylum and have a good cover story, any lie will do. These people come from countries where corruption is a fact of life, so lying to officials, using false names and fake documents, fake passports and lying about their country of origin is just part of the strategy to get their hands on what we British tax-payers already have. Add to that the soft-left and liberals who will campaign to let them stay in the UK and free legal support to fight for their 'rights' and it is easy to see why ANY LIE WILL DO.

On page 4 and 5 of this issue of Broadsword are a number of stories which illustrate this.

ILLEGAL IMMIGRANT JAILED FOR FRAUD

In a classic case of criminality by an illegal immigrant who his behind false papers to enter the UK and commit crimes, a 37 year old Nigerian was jailed for eight months at Belfast Crown Court and recommended for deportation at the end of his sentence.

Oluseye Sunday Olundegun was convicted on four counts of fraud, false representation, fake identity cards, fake Nigerian passports and fake national insurance cards.

The 37 year old Nigerian had entered the UK illegally and set up home in Belfast where he set up bank accounts using his false passport and managed to get a job using his false identity papers.

ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS JAILED OVER ILLEGAL DRUG DEALS MIGHT BE ALLOWED TO REMAIN IN UK ON RELEASE FROM PRISON

Two Chinese illegal immigrants living in Northern Ireland were caught in the act of setting up a deal to supply high grade cannabis.

At Crown Court in Belfast, Ming Chen and Bin Shi were sentenced to a total of six years.

The court recognised that the two illegal immigrants were likely to face deportation after serving at least three years in prison.

Unbelievably it was recorded that if they were allowed to remain in Northern Ireland they would be required to be under a three year supervision order.

ILLEGAL IMMIGRANT DRUG DEALER HAS HIS PRISON SENTENCE CUT SO THAT HE CAN ESCAPE DEPORTATION AND STAY IN THE UK

Jamaican Vincent Miller, 33, has previously been deported from Britain for smuggling class A drugs into the UK. Vincent Miller has twice entered Britain using false identities.

The Jamaican drug dealer first entered Britain in 2000 and remained illegally, being arrested and deported in 2001. Two months later he came back to Britain, using stolen documents to enter the country. He was later arrested, prosecuted and deported in 2003 for supplying class A drugs.

Then he returned to live in London, using a different false identity. Miller went on to marry and his new wife was able to claim UK citizenship based on Miller's false identity.

The Jamaican was finally arrested in July 2011 when his real identity was discovered.

Miller pleaded guilty to 3 counts of dishonestly making a false representation, 3 counts of conspiring to obtain property by deception, and guilty to possessing another person's identity documents.

Miller faced automatic deportation if he served any sentence of a year or longer.

Amazingly, given his previous record and status as an illegal immigrant, and his drug convictions, Miller was given a reduced sentence. The judge at the Inner London Crown Court, Recorder Farouk Ahmed, gave Miller an 11 month sentence so that he would avoid deportation in the interests of Miller's 3 children, who were all born in Britain and therefore living lawfully in the UK.

BRITISH SOCIETY IN 2011 SOMETHING BETTER CHANGE!

Contrary to What Our Political Opponents Say British Movement is Not Promoting Hatred For Any Particular Racial Group or Ethnic Minority; Our National Socialist Programme is About Ensuring the Survival and Preservation of the White British Population, British Culture, British Traditions and British Heritage and the British Identity.

14 WORDS:- We Must Secure the Existence of Our People and a Future For White Children

'Something Better Change!'

The 'August Riots' underlined the urgent need in our country for a British Movement Government, carrying out policies based on the fundamental principles of National Socialism.

The widespread social unrest, violence, looting, arson and vandalism sent shock waves throughout the Establishment, especially the Westminster politicians and the Metropolitan Police. Parliament was recalled and politicians returned home early from their holidays. Throughout the media there have been endless debates and discussions, calls for inquests and public enquiries. Many articles have been written analysing the riots and their causes, as well as a wide range of proposals for remedies and changes to government policies and the law. However, this is all hot air and we can be sure that nothing will really change. Within a short time the riots will be forgotten and the public's attention will be focussed on other news stories.

Why will nothing change?

The basic reason is that our so-called 'democratic' system of government has created a society which is decadent and corrupt from top to bottom. We need a national revolution and the establishment of a British Movement government which will totally overhaul all aspects of our society and way of life.

In particular the following key areas must be tackled: -

1. Multi-racialism and Multi-culturalism.

The rioting, looting, arson and vandalism mainly took place in areas inhabited by the dregs of urban ghettos, steeped in gun and knife crimes, drugs and the culture of the gangs. Only the British Movement policy of phased repatriation will change this situation. The removal of the ethnic minorities and the establishment of an Aryan British nation will drastically reduce crime levels, especially crimes involving drugs, knives, guns, people and sex trafficking. The law enforcement agencies and the judiciary will be able to act without the constraints of the Human Rights, Race Relations and Equality legislation, which a British Movement Government will abolish.

We will establish a legal system which will serve the interests of our Nation, our Race, Identity and Culture.

NORTHERN IRELAND

SDLP Councillor Condemns British Movement Leaflets as 'racist' and 'Pro-British'

Here at Broadsword we were under the impression that Ulster was still part of the United Kingdom and the people of the province were legally British.

It comes to something when an elected member of a left-of-centre, pro-Irish Republican political party condemns a British Movement leaflet, distributed within the borders of the UK for being "pro-British" !

Then just to spice up the accusation for his political fellow-travellers, he accused the leaflets of being "racist" and tried to tie in the BM leaflet distribution with an attack on the home of some Polish migrant workers.

* (The whisper in the neighbourhood was that the Poles had upset people connected to local para-militaries)

British Movement is a National Socialist organisation working towards the creation of a National Socialist counter-culture in Britain, building up a National Socialist alternative than will eventually lead to the creation of a grass-roots N.S mass movement.

Where BM Stands

The British Economy & Banking System

British Movement would completely dismantle and restructure the current financial and banking system in the UK. There would be a complete severing of all financial trading links and currency connections with the Euro-Zone, the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank and international finance houses.

All British banks would be partially nationalised to remove any overseas controls and foreign ownership. British banks would issue British credit.

Case 1 - Nottingham Crown Court - July 2011
Ex-Rampton patient 43 year old Shaun Tudor faced charges of the attempted rape and sexual assault of a 10 year old boy in woods near Rainworth.

Shaun Tudor was living in a private healthcare facility at the time of the sex attack and was supposedly supervised as part of a care in the community programme.

After the court hearing Nottinghamshire police said that they were extremely concerned that Tudor was at large in the community when the offence took place.

Shaun Tudor admitted attempting to rape the 10 year old boy .

Case 2. - Nottingham Crown Court - August 2011
An already convicted sex-offender 45 year old Stephen Goodson was found to be in Facebook contact with a 15 year old boy and was also attempting the on-line 'grooming' of a 7 year old boy.

Goodson already had a previous conviction for an indecent assault on a male, and a conviction for possessing indecent photographs.

Goodson was already subject to a Sexual Offences Prevention Order (SOPO) which banned him from contacting children or using a computer issued by Nottingham Crown Court last year - within months he had breached the order, had two computers, a Facebook account and a mobile phone.

Goodson was already on the Sex Offenders Register and was supposedly under the supervision of the Probation Service.

SCHOOL DRUGS COUNSELLOR WAS A HEROIN DEALER

Based in Halifax, West Yorkshire, Mahfooz Ahmed worked as a drugs counsellor, visiting schools as part of a Government funded anti- drugs education scheme. At the same time Mahfooz Ahmed was one of Britain's biggest dealers in heroin. In October 2010 Ahmed was arrested in a North London car park by police who had been tracking him. They had recovered two of his heroin shipments totalling 144 kg of the drug. He had travelled to Amsterdam three times in one year as part of a massive smuggling conspiracy to bring £11 million worth of heroin into Britain from Turkey.

Mahfooz Ahmed was jailed for 12 years at Leeds Crown Court in August 2011.

2. Materialism, Consumerism and Greed.

We live in a society where fraud, corruption and greed is endemic. Identity fraud, tax fraud and benefit fraud is on the increase. The 'cash for honours' and 'MP's expenses' scandals together with the 'phone-hacking' saga have shown the extent of corruption throughout Britain's political establishment, the police and the media. The 'bonus culture' within the financial sector and the large salaries, pensions and severance payments enjoyed by the politicians, and those employed at high levels throughout the public sector are all good examples of greed.

Articles in previous issues of 'BROADSWORD' have explained how Britain is floating on a sea of debt. The Government, the public sector, many corporate bodies, companies, firms and businesses, as well as ordinary citizens are enslaved by debt. We must break the bonds of debt, reject mass consumerism and build a National Socialist Folk community. To do this we must change the current national mindset. We must build up a strong National Socialist infrastructure as a platform for establishing a British Movement Government.

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK !

So much for the millions of pounds of London tax-payers' money that has been poured into Tottenham since 1985 in the name of 'community cohesion' and 'cultural diversity'.
Multi-Culturalism Has Failed !

Anti-Gay posters in Tower Hamlets put up by militant young Muslims, particularly around Bethnal Green and Hackney.
The posters declare a verse from the Koran and the slogan
"Gay Free Zone".

Not exactly the united, diverse, cohesive, tolerant community of all faiths, races and sexualities that the Lefties want us believe exists in the old East End.

Unbelievably the assorted minorities in the borough have a network of funded organisations dedicated to representing the 'interests' of each minority group; 'Rainbow Hamlets' is the so-called Tower Hamlets lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender forum (LGBT) - they were not amused by the Islamic posters.

Holding hands with 'Rainbow Hamlets' is the East London Mosque and London Muslim Centre, and the self-styled Interfaith Forum all declaring themselves as supporters of Gay rights. They even proposed a special conference on what they call the International Day Against Homophobia (May 17th) !

WALTHAM FOREST IS TO BECOME A 'SHARIA ZONE' !

While Islamic youths are declaring Tower Hamlets a 'Gay Free Zone', another district of east London has been declared a "sharia controlled zone".

It seems that the small, but high profile and very vocal, militant Islamic group.

' Muslims Against the Crusades'

Intends Waltham Forest to be the first London suburb to become an area subject to strict Islamic rules, where "gambling, smoking and alcohol are banned".

To press home their point, the militants have launched a poster campaign across Waltham Forest calling for a so-called Islamic Emirates Project, where Muslim dominated towns and boroughs can become miniature independent Islamic states within the UK.

Yet another symptom of the tensions and forces unleashed in Britain by the creation of multi-racial, multi-cultural communities and continued mass immigration.
Despite all the denials from the mainstream political parties, so-called Inter-Faith groups and self-appointed minority community leaders, the scramble for dominance by fringe religious and ethnic groups will continue.

Multi-Culturalism Has Failed !

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK !

Britain is Deporting Illegal Immigrants and Asylum-Seekers. About 1,000 a Year Which is a Drop in the Ocean - But Human Rights Groups Want to Stop It.

Since the beginning of 2011 more than 60,000 illegal immigrants/ asylum-seekers/ refugees/economic migrants; - whichever term is popular at present, have landed on the shores of Italy. Thousands more have turned up in Greece and Spain.

Under EU legislation these people are registered and fingerprinted on arrival and are given temporary food and shelter. More often than not these people than set out across Europe looking for a country to settle in, usual one with a better welfare system than Greece or Italy, and they travel illegally. Many try to claim asylum in their country of choice, usually Britain. But under an EU ruling, the so-called 'Dublin system' their finger prints are checked and they can be deported back to the first European country they were registered in - usually Greece or Italy. The asylum-seekers do not like this. They want to shop around to claim asylum in their country of choice and will travel across several EU countries to do so - especially if they can get better social welfare, housing and education in Britain or Sweden.

Now the Italian government is complaining about the up to 20 illegal immigrants a day being deported back to Rome by other EU countries.

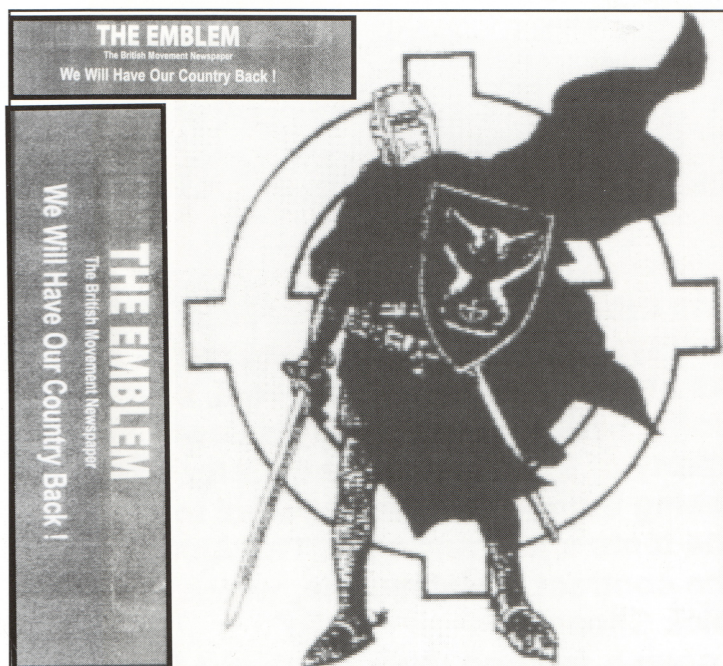

Asylum-seekers are admitting to burning off their own finger prints to try to avoid being sent back to Italy or Greece and now Human Rights groups are trying to get the Dublin system agreement scrapped so that thousands of Africans, Arabs and Afghans can settle where THEY like in the EU.

A newspaper report stated that in one illegally squatted derelict building in Rome there were over 700 illegal immigrants from Eritrea, Sudan, Somalia and Ethiopia, a squatters camp next to Rome's Ostiense railway station had over 80 Afghans living in tents. Yet still more and more illegals pour into Europe, demanding asylum, demanding the freedom to go and live in whichever country THEY wish.

The Human Rights groups support the illegals in this. Nobody seems to point out to the illegals that Britain and other White European countries do not want them - Send Them Back !

WUNSEIDEL

July 2011

The Desecration of the Grave of Rudolf Hess

Wunseidel - Bavaria - July 2011

The Hess family were bullied into agreeing to the exhumation of their grandfather and the removal of his granite headstone. The Wunseidel town council and officials of the Lutheran church had used the expiry date of the Hess family lease on the cemetery plot as a reason to refuse another 20 year lease of the plot to the family. When Hess's grand-daughter sought to extend the lease it was refused and pressure was put on the family to agree to the exhumation and cremation of the remains.

The authorities in Wunseidel were so careful not to draw attention to their desecration of the Hess grave that their exhumation work began in secret at 4 am in the morning of Wednesday, July 20th.

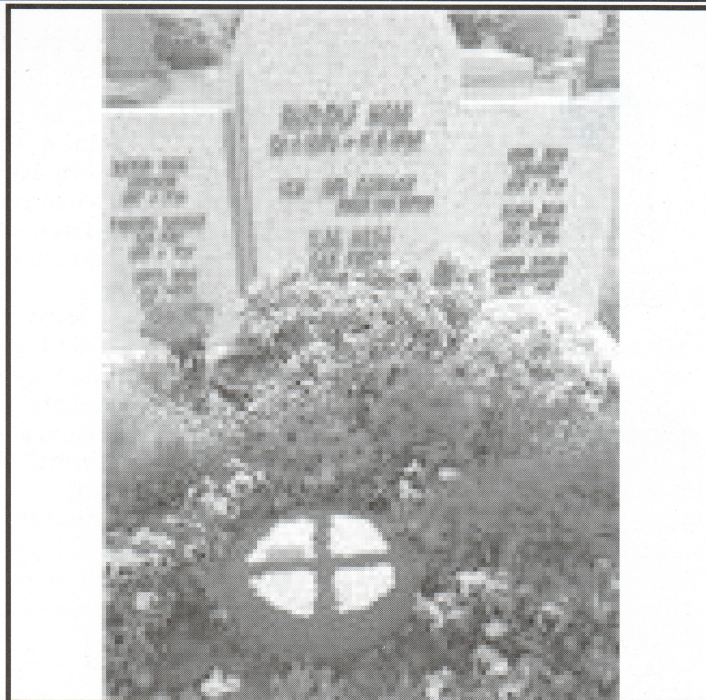

One of the Hess grand-daughters sought a legal injunction to block the operation, but was 'persuaded' to back down and allow the removal to take place.

The remains of Rudolf Hess were then quickly cremated and immediately taken by aircraft and dumped in a body of water, (some reports say the ashes were dropped from an aircraft into the sea, others say that the ashes were dumped in an unnamed Bavarian lake). This was an intensive and very expensive operation to achieve a token political victory over a long dead National Socialist.

The authorities in Germany hated the fact the Hess was annually remembered by marches and vigils at his grave site on the 17th of August, to mark his sacrifice and to remember his suspicious death.

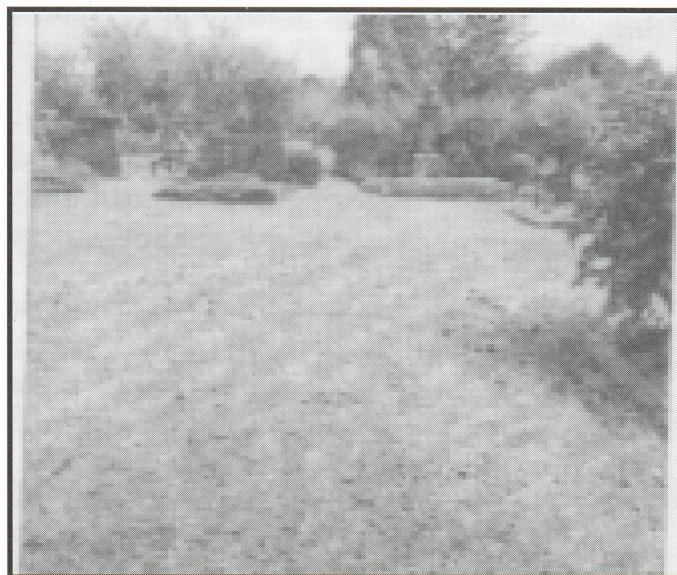

There can be little doubt as to the political motives behind this situation, the grubby motives behind it were best summed up by a spokesman for Wunseidel town council, Horst Martini told reporters that, "The people in the town didn't like the association with Hess, so it is good news that he's gone".

Herr Martini did not specify which people in the town objected to the Hess grave but his spiteful statement leaves no room for doubt as to the council's position.

How it was in 2009

The Hess Family Grave
A Red Sunwheel Wreath Laid Respectfully

How it is now

A vindictive and deliberate attempt to erase Rudolf Hess from history. The forces that sought to destroy National Socialism executed all the surviving German National Socialist leaders after the Nuremberg trials in 1946 and 1947. Their bodies were cremated and their ashes scattered in secret locations. Finally, Rudolf Hess has shared that fate, his bones were cremated and his ashes secretly dumped where they can no longer be honoured.

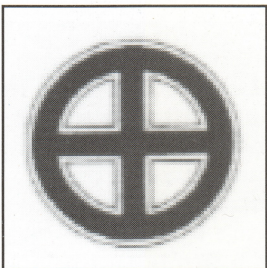

MAKING MONEY OUT OF 'RACISM' AND INFLUENCING GOVERNMENT OFFICERS AND CIVIL SERVANTS

Broadsword has recently acquired copies of a range of publications presented as official guidelines and training materials for the Police, the Crown Prosecution Service, Probations Services, Ministry of Justice personnel and Prison officers. Allegedly these publications are used as part of the Metropolitan Police training courses at Hendon. Some of this material is based on 'Searchlight' publications which were launched almost ten years ago.

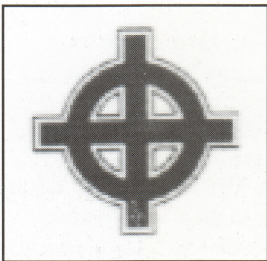

'Signs of Hate' 'When Hate Comes To Town' 'White Noise' "Detecting and Managing Racism in Prisons"

Expensively produced, glossy presentation and full of inaccurate and out of date information, 'Signs of Hate' was first produced almost ten years ago ! How much tax-payers money is being paid into the coffers of the professional anti-fascists at "Searchlight" aka "HOPE not Hate" by the Home office, by the Ministry of Justice, by the Metropolitan Police, by the Crown Prosecution Service, local Probation services and police forces nationally ?

The Sunwheel

They say;
"An ancient non fascist symbol appropriated by Nazis in a similar fashion to the Celtic Cross, strongly associated with Germanic fascism."

The Celtic Cross

They say:
"A non fascist symbol appropriated by Nazis in an attempt to stress pure Aryan lineage and stock."

The Thor's hammer

They say:
"A Thor's Hammer (Aryan) pendant..... commonly displayed by racist groups "

The Tree of Life

They say;
"This symbol is commonly used by racist groups to stress the notion of Aryanism and is widely used as a publicly visible substitute for the swastika in countries where the displaying of the swastika is banned.."

The Home Office and the Ministry of Justice are blatantly using publications produced by an explicitly far-Left, anti-fascist organisation to train and condition the police, probation and prison services to think and act in an anti-racist, anti-fascist way. There can be no doubt that this is part of a far-Left strategy and is part of a long term agenda to 'outlaw' racial nationalism and White racial pride.

The extracts re-printed here leave no doubt as to the determination of the people behind the so-called, "Guidelines" to direct law-enforcement, probation and prison staff towards a particular mind-set when dealing with potential 'Far-right' individuals. The language, style and focus of these publications is to instill hostility towards the target group, to identify them, isolate them and take pre-emptive punitive action against them.

Ministry of Justice personnel are being mentally prepared to automatically pre-judge such individuals as 'racist' and therefore dangerous. and therefore as bearers of unacceptable ideas and unacceptable lifestyles. "Staff involved in risk classification will be required to use their judgement based on the intelligence received, i.e. the use of the swastika leaves no doubt as to its intentions, it is a widely recognised symbol of racism..."

The wording is often focussed on objects or designs as being "Aryan" rather than "fascist" or "nazi" or "racist". Does this suggest perhaps a semitic obsessional hatred of anything that is deemed to be Aryan?

There is within these documents an Orwellian urgency to identify, categorise anyone who might possibly have some kind of 'Far-right' or merely folkish leanings.

In regard to tatoos this comment sums up the level of suspicion that these 'Thought-Police' operate under; "For some others, such as Celtic bands and Laurel leaves, it is essential that as much information as possible is sought to determine the actual meaning behind their use".

Hard luck then on anyone who just happens to like a traditional, heritage style !

Other symbols of traditional British and European pre-Christian beliefs and folk art receive equal levels of condemnation and demonisation, both the Tree of Life and the Thor's Hammer are regarded with suspicion, the captions reveal a great deal about the psychology of those writing this material. It also shows how closely tied in with the police, Special Branch and other state agencies the influence of a pro-Zionist, extreme- Left, agency and its policies has become.

THE PROTOCOLS

FACT OR FICTION?

In Issue Number 40 of Broadsword we stated that if there was sufficient interest we would further explore the subject. So given the interest expressed by our readers, Broadsword continues to examine the history and pronouncements of the publication called 'The Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion'.

Most mainstream writers on the subject of the authenticity of the Protocols refer to either the essays of Lucian Wolf, written in the 1920's, or the judgements given before a Swiss court in May 1935 at the end of a lengthy legal action brought by the 'Federation of Jewish Communities of Switzerland' and the 'Berne Jewish Community' against five members of two Swiss nationalist organisations who were publishing and distributing the Protocols in Switzerland.

The Protocols on Trial

Berne, Switzerland - 1934 and 1935.

By the end of October 1934 the Jewish plaintiffs had called a total of 16 witnesses as a result of which, on May 14th 1935 the court issued a judgement to state that the Protocols were a forgery and 'demoralising literature.' This judgement was eventually brought before the Court of criminal Appeal in October 1937 and quashed entirely as being based on faulty judgement.

The booklet published in Germany in 1938 by Dr. Karl Bergmeister entitled "The Jewish World Conspiracy" - 'The Protocols of the Elders of Zion before the Court in Berne' took a firmly German National Socialist outlook on the protracted court case in Switzerland. Dr. Bergmeister argued that the story about the Protocols being forged by the Czarist Russian secret police was a false trail. He also denied the theory that the documents originated from the Zionist Congress in Basel in 1897, but suggested that the text had already existed in Zionist circles between 1890 and 1895 and had been part of the debate at a meeting of the Zionist brethren of the Bnai-Brith Order in Basel, Switzerland in 1897.

CONFLICTING OPINIONS

On the one side the essays by Lucien Wolf which draw heavily on the allegation that the Protocols was a forgery, and a basic re-write of earlier conspiracy stories.

On the other side a challenge to the generally accepted version of the findings of the Berne trial in Switzerland in 1934/35. Which were subsequently quashed at a Swiss court of Appeal which decided that the Protocols were not 'demoralising literature' and the first court had not the authority to decide whether or not the Protocols were a forgery or authentic.

SOME FACTS

International (Jew-controlled) Finance,
Bolshevism and Zionism

By A. Homer, M.A., D.Sc., F.I.C., etc.

This article, which appeared in instalments in the issues of the "Catholic Herald" of the 21st and 28th October and the 4th November, 1933, was written in reply to a challenge issued by Mr. L. F. Hydeleman. It was reprinted in pamphlet form in response to a widespread demand for this information, which had been collated from authoritative sources (both Jew and Gentile) to demonstrate the relation between JUDAISM and BOLSHEVISM, and the alliance between INTERNATIONAL FINANCE and its protégés, BOLSHEVISM and ZIONISM.

The Editor of the "Catholic Herald" repeatedly reserved space for Mr. Hydeleman to reply. But, so far as has been ascertained, neither Mr. Hydeleman, nor any responsible member of Jewry has publicly denied or disproved these statements of fact.

Counter Claims: - Jews Who Believe That The Protocols Are Genuine.

While most secular and political Jewish writers state emphatically that the Protocols are, "a notorious forgery", there has been a consistent trickle of assorted Jewish commentators worldwide, who over the past century have believed the Protocols to be genuine Zionist documents. Dr. Karl Bergmeister in his 1938 booklet, discussed on the previous page of this article, quoted three orthodox Jewish figures who stated publicly that the Protocols were authentic.

"The declarations of the Assistant Rabbi Fleischmann, of Rabbi Grunfeld and of the former Rabbi Ephron taken together, give uncontrovertible proof of the correctness of the assumption that the Protocols are a genuine Jewish document."

A leading Zionist in the early part of the 20th Century, Nahum

Sokolow was reported in the 'New York Times, August 28th 1922 of addressing the Zionist Congress in Carlsbad as follows;

"The League of Nations is a Jewish idea. We created it after a fight of 25 years. Jerusalem will some day become the capital of world peace. what we Jews have accomplished after twenty-five years of struggle we owe to the genius of our immortal leader Theodor Herzl."

Another Jewish commentator in the USA, Dr Klee of New York, made this statement in a speech in January 1936,

"The League of Nations was in no sense the work of president Wilson. It is essentially a Jewish creation of which we Jews may be proud. The idea thereof goes back to the Wise Men of Israel. It is a product of pure Jewish culture."

These are hardly words of denial.

Belief in the Authenticity of the Protocols - Henry Ford.

The motor manufacturer and founder of the Ford Motor Company, Henry Ford was a confirmed believer in the genuine nature of The Protocols. In an interview published in the New York publication "World" in February 1921, Henry Ford famously stated,

"The only statement I care to make about the PROTOCOLS is that they fit in with what is going on. They are sixteen years old, and they have fitted the world situation up to this time. THEY FIT IT NOW."

Opponents of the Protocols have always ignored Ford's confirmation on the grounds that he was a committed anti-semitic and went on to publish and promote a special 'Ford Edition' of the Protocols in the USA. Henry Ford Sr. as he became also published a short series of books called, "The International Jew"

Race Mixing and the Growth of the Mixed Race Population in Britain An Ever Increasing Threat to the Fourteen Words

October 2011 - the BBC launches a series called "Mixed Britannia" as part of what is declared to be the BBC's Mixed Race season. A series of radio and Television programs which 'celebrate' the growth and increasing profile of a mixed race population in the UK.

In previous issues of Broadsword the threat of race-mixing to Britain's genetic make-up has been stressed and reported on. Now it appears that the forces of multi-racialism and champions of multi-cul-turalism are declaring their support for inter-racial relationships and the expansion of a racially mixed population.

It was not until the National Census for England and Wales in 2001 that mixed race was officially counted, giving a figure of over 661,000, which did not include mixed race individuals in Scotland and Northern Ireland. Those figures represented 1.3% of the overall population.

Population researchers at Leeds University now estimate that by 2010 the mixed race population had increased to 968,000 and expect the Census figures for 2011 to confirm the rapid expansion of the mixed race presence in England and Wales. The research predicts that this level of population growth will reach 1.3 million by 2020 and will count for over 2% of the British population by the year 2020.

The statistics show that will mean an overall growth in the UK mixed race population between 2001 and 2020 of 93% - which in a less than 30 year period is a tremendously worrying trend.

Add to those statistics the findings of a survey by a black journalist who reported that,

"There is an implicit assumption that there are black boys out there who only want to date either white or lighter-skinned women."

It is a recognised phenomena in the black immigrant communities that in both the UK and the USA a percentage of black males deliberately search for blonde White women as girlfriends/wives as this is seen as an ultimate status symbol by some groups of black men. In the USA this has been explained away by leftist sociologists as a final act of triumph over their 'slave heritage'.

Here in Britain the phenomena of racially mixed relationships has been actively promoted and supported by a liberalist media and overtly presented as 'normal' or even desirable in mainstream advertising, assorted mass distribution publications as well as in TV and film.

The greatest threat to the National Socialist ideal of an Aryan Folk Community in Britain is the ticking genetic timebomb of a mixed race gene-pool.

To put it crudely, if we are to realise the Fourteen Words, the White British must protect their future breeding population from racial contamination.

Norwegian Bomber and Gunman
Anders Behring Breivik
The Zionist Connection

Dear Broadsword Comrades,

Here are my observations on the terrible atrocity carried out in Norway by so-called 'Christian' Zionist Anders Behring Breivik :

1. Breivik wrote in his manifesto that, " We must fight together with Israel, with our Zionist brothers against all anti-zionists" - quoted in the 'Jerusalem Post' on the 24th July 2011.
2. Arch Zionist Debbie Schluskel wrote on her website that the terror attacks in Norway were pay back time and 'Karma', because of the Norwegian youths' support for Palestinians and a 'Boycott Israel Campaign'.
(In my opinion those Norwegian young socialists should have been converted to National Socialism, NOT murdered by a Zionist lover like Breivik!)
3. The so-called English Defence League (EDL) - Jewish Division openly supported Breiviks actions. Breivik supported the EDL and on the EDL Facebook page Jewish Division leader Robert Bartholomews, stated that the children killed were "scum", for discussing the plight of the oppressed, indigenous Palestinian Arabs. Bartholomews took over from the Jewess, the Brazilian-born Roberta Moore, who left the EDL because she was "too extreme". I would suggest that Bartholomews' extremism is way off the map in comparison !
Zionist extremist Rabbi Nachum Schifren, who has spoken at EDL rallies, supports the killing of apostates according to the Talmud and Old Testament. Paul Ray who was a member of the EDL, fled to Malta and set up his own Ancient Order of Templar Knights, a pro-Israel group like the EDL. He admits Facebook contact with Breivik, and was a friend of Ulster terrorist Johnny Adair.
4. The 'Order of White Knights' promoted Breivik's video on their website. The OWK was formed as a splinter group from Combat 18, which attacked John Tyndall's anti-zionist BNP, as well as attacking British Movement. C18 included traitors and informers like Darren Wells and the drunken thug Mathew Collins, who went on to join anti-fascist 'Searchlight'. Clearly Anders Breivik was a patsy, a tool of World Jewry. I have made this clear on the internet forums; Stormfront Britain, British Democracy Forum and Viva Malta.
Breivik is therefore the enemy of true National Socialists.

Some Comments on 'King Arthur' Scargill

Dear Editor,

I've just been reading the letter from 'Yorkshire Tyke' in Broadsword issue 41, and he might be interested in something I saw all of maybe 30 years ago. I live hard by the Barbican and I knew that 'King Arthur' (Scargill) had a squat there although I had never seen him in the area. One Saturday morning I went out to get a loaf of bread and some rolls from our local bakery (shows how long ago it was) and who should I see come trotting up the street but his 'majesty' himself from the direction of the Barbican.

What intrigued me was to see him in the company of a delightful young page boy. I didn't say anything of course, but I gave Arthur a searching hard look as if to say, "That might be de rigueur in the coalfields of South Yorkshire old son, but not here in Finsbury." Things have changed somewhat since then.

Of course, being seen in the company of a boy tart doesn't mean they were connected in any way, but at 8.30 on a Saturday morning one's mind tends to lean in that direction. By the way, did you know that Arthur Scargill has Jewish connections? Oh yes he does. Back in the '70's during the infamous Grunwicks strike his half-brother, a full blooded Jew was arrested along with his wife and taken into custody. Released on bail the awesome pair disappeared and turned up in of all places East Berlin, where they asked for political asylum ! The Stasi boys fell about laughing, and told them that they must be nuts to want to live in East Germany and sent them back on the next plane. At the time this character, (whose name escapes me) was suspected of breaking into the office of the National Front in Fleet Street, and that's why he scooted. He's never been heard of since. I expect that the powers that be had a hand in hushing the episode up.

So there you have it. A nice Jewish boy in Number 10, a nice Jewish boy heading the Opposition and a nice Jewish boy on the 'throne'. and to think that there are those who say that the Protocols are a fake !

Oh and by the way, let us not forget Boris, our Bronx born, fluffy haired, bottle blond, Turko-jewish, and old Etonian mayor. Here's something else, Did you know that the historian David Irving's daughter Jessica is best friends with 'Bojo's' daughter ? There's a thing.

Back in the old days Arnold Leese, possibly the greatest of all English nationalists always regarded Sir Oswald (Tom) Mosley as a "kosher-fascist". Does this mean that David Irving is a kosher-nazi ? It makes you think.

RADICAL OPINIONS

Opinions expressed in this column do not necessarily reflect the official British Movement position or policy but are included to stimulate debate and discussion on a wide range of topics of interest to our National Socialist and racial Nationalist readership.

LIBYA

The New World Order In Action !

Events in Libya must be seen as a vision of the future and an example of how the forces of globalisation intend to react towards regimes which do not meet their approval.

Whatever we may think about Colonel Gaddafi and his regime, the question arises as to why Libya is a target for regime change. We can all think of regimes which could be regarded as more tyrannical and evil, and who treat their subjects much worse than Gaddafi; Mugabe in Zimbabwe immediately springs to mind. There is also North Korea, Burma and Sudan.

One should also not forget the 'bandit state' of Israel and its treatment of the Palestinians.

For decades Israel has been allowed to pursue its policy of 'ethnic cleansing' without hindrance.

Returning to Libya and Gaddafi, in recent years great efforts had been made to promote diplomatic and trade agreements with Libya. Readers will recall pictures of a grinning Prime Minister Tony Blair shaking hands with Colonel Gaddafi. The 'Lockerbie bomber' was returned to Libya as part of a wider deal to safeguard UK trade and business interests especially BP's investments in the Libyan oil industry.

The conclusion one must draw from this is that the New World Order has decided that Gaddafi must be sacrificed in the interests of global finance and to ensure that Libya's oil remains available to be exploited by the multi-national oil companies.

I believe that, as National Socialists, we must oppose the actions of the New World Order. We must condemn the involvement of the UK Government and our armed forces in the attacks on Libya. We have no right to interfere in the internal affairs of another sovereign state. In addition at a time of austerity, when the British people are being subjected to a dramatic fall in living standards, unemployment is rising, prices are rising as inflation becomes out of control and government debt continues to increase, the government cannot afford to be involved in more military campaigns abroad.

The actions of the alien financiers who control the New World Order, and their puppets, (the politicians who 'lead' the countries involved in the military action), must also be seen as a warning to National Socialists.

If a 'popular nationalist' party, for example the BNP or French NF, obtained power through the ballot box, the New World Order would not accept the result, but would actively seek regime change. Thus 'popular nationalism' or a diluted form of 'radical nationalism' is no answer. The only alternative to the New World Order and its doctrine of multi-racialism, global materialism, consumerism and financial slavery, is radical National Socialism.

However, this cannot be National Socialism in just one country. In order to fight our global enemies, we must form a pan - European Federation of National Socialists as part of a World Union of Aryan People. As well as building a strong British Movement in the United Kingdom, we must encourage the growth of similar movements in all parts of the world where our fellow Aryans have settled.

WHAT ABOUT THE WORKERS?

I was reading about Mick Napier in the press recently. He was a zealous SWP (Socialist Workers Party) Trotskyite, and a school teacher who used to hold public meetings in Glasgow city centre in the 1970's. He now seems to be with the 'Palestine Solidarity' group.

Israel deported him back to Luton airport.

In the 1970's and 1980's they had 57 varieties of Leftism, they were all promoting various different party lines, these were all based on

'Internationalism' and 'Inter-Dependency'. If you said 'What about us British?' they would look at you as if you were some kind of leper. They are real crackpots, and grovel with guilt and shame and self-hate. For them to be White and British is deeply regretted, but you have met them no doubt.

I notice that those same Lefties are now all in fat-salaried public sector jobs or are in journalism or the Trade Unions. You don't see them driving lorries or working down the pits or on the docks etc. They don't like us real blue-collar Brits, that's for sure. Look how they mob us on the streets.

Look at Britain today. Seven million working class Brits find it hard to pay gas and electricity bills (not to mention Council tax). Scurvy has been found amongst working-class children in our backstreets, that is a disease of poverty.

Five million are unemployed and Lefties like Mick Napier beaver away with some Palestinian Solidarity group.

Do the Left hate us blue collar British workers?

Where is their zeal for our situation?

Already the press call us 'Chavs' (Council Housed and Violent) and 'Neds' (Non Educated Delinquents).

Some Hollywood types are making a movie in Glasgow, it's about Zombies, and already the press has published a letter from a critic calling us blue collar workers 'zombies'. It is a massive class and cultural denigration to put down the White working class man.

They project evil images of us so that the upper and middle class will feel alienated from us.

DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENTS ARE THE WEEDS IN OUR NATIONAL GARDEN

Our country is facing the biggest crisis it has faced for decades. Each one of us are faced with that fact every morning when we open our eyes. It is not going to go away. All democratic governments are the same, they all have the same roots, they are weeds in the garden that is our country. They strangle, stagnate and kill all hope and life in our Folk. They grow from the same soil as we do, but their entangled roots spread across the land squeezing the life from the flower of our land.

We, the White British are the flower of our blessed part of the Earth, the British Isles, and we, now must grow to be the strongest and tallest, leaving the stranglehold of the weeds behind. We must look to our own. We must feed each other now. We must shut out all the impurities and weeds and create a self-organised system of care and welfare for our own Folk Community, the National Socialist way.

The National Socialist way that removes the old class system, the notion of rich and poor, and allows us once again to become a National Family, working together for the good of all within our Folk Community.

By growing the seeds of our ideology in the hearts of our people we will cause the flower of the National Socialist Folk Community to grow and it will become a natural pesticide for our country, eradicating the weeds that strangle and stifle our nation.

Breaking free and killing off the entangled roots and the weeds that are the democratic politics and governments that have suffocated our country and our people for so long. Their time is over. Now, now is the time for National Socialists to push onwards and upwards, out into the fresh air of freedom.

We can break the chains of the democratic political parties, break the chains of the governments, break the chains of materialism. There is so much that we can achieve together, all it takes is the Will !

ANOTHER UNWANTED IMPORT FROM THE EUROPEAN UNION ROMA GYPSIES BEGGING ON BRITISH STREETS

October 19th 2011 - BBC1 Panorama

A fascinating expose of the organised gangs of Romanian Roma gypsies who travel to Britain to earn money by begging, shop-lifting and benefit fraud.

Roma Gypsies from Romania are working as organised gangs on the streets of London, very young Roma children, often little more than toddlers, some were being directed by their mothers, others were supervised by adult gypsy women. Gypsy woman carrying babies or pushing babies in pushchairs were constantly 'pan-handling' for cash from shoppers and commuters in the centre of London.

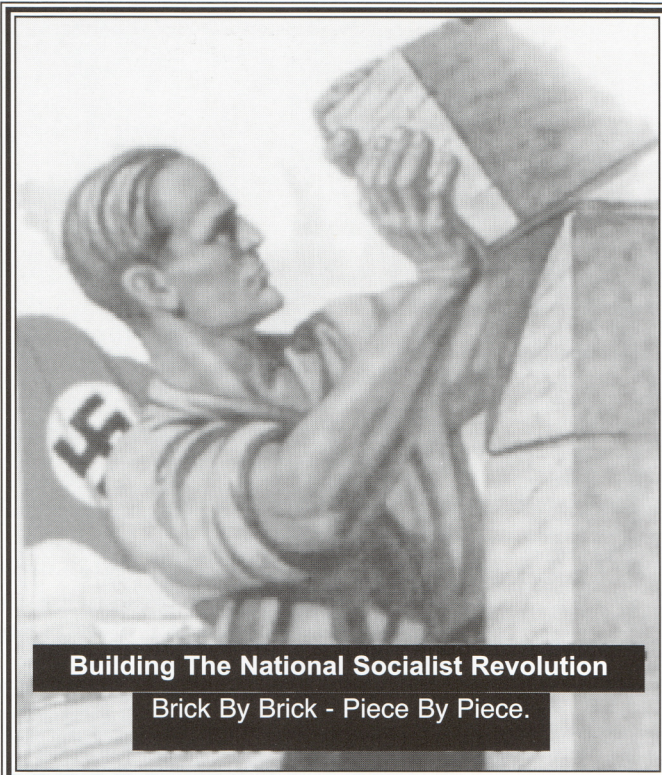

The gypsies have developed a strategy for maximising their cash take, they dress like Muslim women and children (they are not Muslims) and beg outside mosques and Arab cafes, because they know that devout Muslims are supposed to be charitable, especially to impoverished fellow Muslims. Hidden cameras showed Roma women shoplifting headscarves in order to cover their heads like Muslims. The scam was very lucrative and the cameras recorded bank notes as well as coins being 'donated'.

BUILDING AN N.S. FUTURE

The creation of a National Socialist state in Great Britain is the ultimate goal of British Movement, and in order to achieve the creation of a National Socialist 'New Order' in the UK, we must first create the political conditions by which this situation can be realised.

This will be a long and difficult struggle, but it can be done and for the future of our people it must be done. We must right the wrongs inflicted upon our people in the name of multi-racialism and multi-culturalism, we must regain the birth-right of our people taken from them by stealth and the lies of democratic politicians and Left-wing ideologists. So-called progressive thinkers and opinion makers who have corrupted our nation's psyche.

We Will Have Our Country Back!

The Complete Victory of a New Conception of Human Existence Takes Time

There is no quick and easy route to a final National Socialist victory, our entire political creed and the NS philosophy was born out of struggle. We cannot expect to overturn decades of conditioning and effective 'brain-washing' of the British White population overnight. Nor should we seek to take short cuts to achieving influence by denying our hard-core National Socialist principles or 'watering down' our policies to achieve populist support.

We stand by our principles and our beliefs and prove that we are honest and open about our intentions, we are radical and we are true to our Cause. Our Movement will not hide behind a flag of convenience and soft policies whilst promising our die-hard supporters that "When we get into power, then we can show our true colours and do this or that". The British population will never support an organisation that displays such dishonesty of intentions or is afraid to proclaim itself and its true beliefs.

Our struggle to fulfill the victory of British National Socialism and the realisation of the 14 Words is a long, hard road. It is not something that will be easy to achieve and we must think in the long term, campaign in the long term and build on each small victory or achievement. As one German NS writer summed it up in 1932, "Many centuries were required before Christianity won the day."

In order to build our desired National Socialist future we must be prepared to face many challenges and many set backs, but keep our eyes focussed on that distant prize on the horizon and press ahead with renewed determination not to be beaten.

We will never convince the dyed-in-the-wool liberals or Marxists to change their beliefs and support our cause, but we can win over the hearts and minds of the hundreds of thousands of fellow White British people who do not accept the permanent state of affairs. Those who are unhappy with mass immigration; do not want a multi-racial Britain; who cannot accept multi-culturalism or race-mixing; those who want British culture, heritage and traditions preserved.

Those are the hearts and minds we can and will win over. It just takes time and effort and the Will.

" BETTER THE ENEMY WE KNOW THAN THE ONE WE DO NOT "

In the difficult times ahead we must beware the infiltrators, the 'agent provocateurs', paid informers, spies and wreckers who will seek to undermine all our Movement's endeavours and distract us and our resources from achieving our National Socialist victory.

Dear Broadsword,

Re: the article in Broadsword No. 41 about Eastern European gypsies selling the 'Big Issue'.

There is a woman, at least I think it is, who is so wrapped up it's hard to know. Balkan by the accent.

She stands outside a small Tesco in the village of Brockenhurst in the centre of the New Forest, selling the publication (Big Issue). I'm told that she is dropped off by car most mornings and collected again in the late afternoon. But of all places, this is in the middle of 'Real England'!

Dear Broadsword,

Thank you very much for sending me issue 40 of Broadsword, it is a very interesting publication and I can't wait for issue 41. Thanks also for sending me

'The Emblem'. I agree with all the policies stated in it, especially the "14 Words".

Me and my family moved to Spain in 2005, back in England in 2004 my grandson's were told that they might not be able to go to the same school anymore because the school had to make 60 spaces for black African children. Plus I was fed up with going to work everyday and being the only White person on the bus. Now we live in Spain with other White English people.

Although I live in Spain now, I am very interested in helping out anyway I can, I am interested in your policies and in preserving the White race. We need to get OUR country back!

14 Words - An exile in Alicante

Dear Broadsword,

Thank you for sending me the excellent recent issue of Broadsword, It's heartening to read a journal which offers a genuinely National Socialist perspective, both in relation to current events and our racial history.

However, I was extremely disappointed to read the letter by T.M. which described the Japanese as "yellow-skinned, slit-eyed monsters" and "sadists and murderers". Japan fought courageously alongside the forces of Aryan liberation in World War 2 and paid a terrible price, both in terms of the US occupation at the end of the war and Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Savitri Devi, in an essay entitled "Shinto: The Way of the Gods", writes admiringly of Japanese heroism during the war and highlights the parallels between National Socialism and Shinto, the national Japanese religion.

Shinto may be summarised as the cult of the Sun, the cult of ancestors and the cult of national heroes, all of which are dear to the hearts of National Socialists!

It's no coincidence that the first act of the US occupation was to forbid the teaching of Shinto texts in all Japanese schools. Savitri Devi also writes movingly of the kamikaze pilots who sacrificed themselves for their country and their Emperor and who, in their last thoughts "remembered their brief lives and their loyalty to the Rising Sun, which was embodied in the solar dynasty of the Emperors."

In regard to any atrocities committed by Japanese forces, it goes without saying that we should honour and respect all British troops and remember their sufferings and sacrifices. However, we also need to consider that history is only ever written by the victors. We know from our own experiences of the Holocaust cult in Europe, which is now effectively a state religion, the lengths to which our enemies will go in order to denigrate those who fought for our racial freedom.

Let us strive for the day when all our Aryan dead will be honoured,

Dear Broadsword,

STOP IMMIGRATION ! START REPATRIATION !

I am very pleased to see the return of this old slogan in the latest issue of 'Broadsword' No. 41.

As the editorial makes clear, this slogan is far from out of date. Europe is under siege and we in the UK in particular face a racial time bomb. The UK Border Agency is 'not fit for purpose'. So-called immigration controls have become a joke. Because of the Human Rights legislation it has become impossible to deport many foreign criminals (that includes convicted terrorists), failed asylum-seekers and other illegal immigrants. There is also widespread abuse of student visas, visitor permits and temporary work permits.

Few checks are made on those overstaying their welcome!

In addition there is the 'sham marriages' scandal, which has been highlighted in 'Broadsword'.

Because the UK is a member of the European Union, there is no limit on the number of immigrants from other member states. This situation will become worse as the EU expands eastwards and especially if Turkey becomes a full EU member.

Meanwhile the overall population of the UK is expanding rapidly as a result of immigration and an immigrant 'baby-boom'. One in four of new mothers are foreign born.

Only the most fanatical advocates of multi-culturalism and diversity fail to see the impact of mass immigration on the fabric and infrastructure of our way of life and society, especially the health service, education and housing.

It is clear that the 'Old Gang' of Establishment politicians have no realistic policies for tackling immigration. It is too late to talk about limiting numbers and toughening border controls.

To save our Race, Nation and Cultural Identity radical solutions are needed.

Only a British Movement Government will take the necessary action. It has been clearly stated that this will mean a staged programme of deportation and repatriation. This would follow a complete halt on all non-white immigration into the UK, and a new system of citizenship based entirely on race and nationality. There will be no compromise.

We will adhere to the fundamental principles of National Socialism.

14 Words! We Will Have Our Country Back!

whether they be the "Sons of Britain who have died without knowing why" (to quote William Joyce) or those who fought for the liberation of all our folk and are now classed as "war criminals". It's my belief that a future National Socialist state will also honour the Japanese forces who fought so heroically under the Sign of the Sun. As Savitri Devi declares, "Oh, poor Japan, faithful to your sons, our ally during WW II! I admire and envy you! When will we Europeans build a Temple or at least a monument to honour the memory of our heroes, of our dead, of our leaders, which our enemies still call today "war criminals"? When will we publicly and freely pay homage to our dead as you do to yours?

Thanks again for Broadsword and I look forward to receiving future issues.

 Broadsword says : - This is just one of a number of letters we received on this subject and we will endeavour to make space for the rest in Issue 43.

There are some interesting points here and it has to be remembered that post-war British attitudes to the war against the Japanese were often coloured by the personal experiences of those brave British soldiers, sailors and airmen who fought in the brutal jungle warfare of Burma or suffered as prisoners of war in the Far East.

The British 14th Army in Burma was known as the 'Forgotten Army' and suffered terrible privations in the years of jungle fighting.

The clash of cultures and conflicting attitudes to warfare in the fighting between British Empire forces and Imperial Japanese created the conditions where acts of brutality and atrocities were committed, not exclusively by the Japanese, but more often by the Japanese against captured British Empire troops.

We look forward to more opinions from our readers on this subject. Broadsword Editor.

Prince's tribute to British Jews

Prince Charles Windsor, Prince of Wales, pictured above as a guest at the London anniversary dinner celebrating the 250 years since the founding of the Board of Deputies of British Jews.

Prince Charles is wearing a 'kippa' the traditional head covering worn by observant Jews at religious ceremonies and as a mark of piety when eating.

Interesting to note that the Prince's skull-cap is personalised at the front with the embroidered insignia of the Prince of Wales three white feather plumes and his motto 'Ich Dien'.

The Norway Shootings & Bombing Professional Anti-racists Cash-in.

Within hours of the attacks in Norway being attributed to what the media call, "the Far-Right", the professional 'experts' on the 'Far-Right' were to be heard and seen everywhere.

In the UK, the experts at "International Searchlight" were quick off the mark to give their expert opinions. Nick Lowles was interviewed on TV and across the week was quoted numerous times in assorted newspapers; sometimes he was described as the Chief Executive of Hope not Hate; on others he was the Editor of 'Searchlight' magazine; elsewhere he was the Director of the "anti-fascist organisation Searchlight"; so many titles, so many quotes. How his mentor Gerry Gable must have enjoyed the situation as the British media referred to his organisations as their main point of reference. The Norwegian 'anti-fascists' did not get a look-in and the opportunity to pull in fresh donations and interview fees to 'Hope Not Hate' and 'Searchlight' will not have been ignored.

There is nothing like the spectre of a real life 'fascist' atrocity for pulling in the money and focussing the minds of wealthy ethnic minority citizens on funding the anti-fascist struggle. Yes, we are sure that behind all the condemnation and cries of outrage and solidarity with their Norwegian Labour party comrades, business has been very good.

London Academic Advises Looters!

University of London course administrator Jacob Bard-Rosenberg was quoted in the 'Evening Standard' - 10th August 2011, advising potential looters that they should.

"Mask up properly, not just a hood."

The Left-wing academic and 'blogger' told the newspaper that he refused to condemn looters and advised those arrested to, "Don't Panic : Don't Talk"
